Cadillac; in-laws, Cheryl Brooks, Lisa (Brent) McCumber all of Cadillac, Steve (Lynn) Kuhn of Dexter and Dan Brooks of Vero Beach, Florida; an aunt, Eileen Ashley of Cadillac; nephews: Keith Earegood (Ember), Mark Kuhn, Jared Kuhn, Sam McCumber, Charlie McCumber, Max McCumber; great-nieces: Quinn, Zoey, Autumn and many special cousins.

In addition to his parents he was preceded in passing by his in-laws, Vernelle and Mary Johnson and a sister-in-law, Susan Kuhn.

“ I believe I owe the better part of my life to Al. I was painting the peak of the building at Wilcox's, standing on the top rung of the ladder, reaching up as far as I could, and scared to death I was about to fall. Al came in with his crew, saw the situation and didn't like it, so he offered to come up and finish the painting for me. I didn't know anyone was even paying attention. I was so relieved and thankful. I since then HAVE fallen off a ladder, but I couldn't have done it without him saving me years earlier. Lol. Al was a lovely human and I always enjoyed talking with him and teasing him. Love to all of you as you navigate trying to fill the holes in your hearts that his loss has left behind.

“ We were honored and blessed to be a small part of Al's life these past several years. Our daughters truly appreciated how he would intentionally invest into each of them and how he would always take the time to talk with them, especially when they were outside playing basketball. Al was like a Grandpa to our girls and we are forever grateful, plus we could always count on Al to set the record for the amount of cinnamon rolls he would purchase from the girls. Jolyn, Brady and Alanna, we are praying for you and may God give you peace, strength and comfort as you celebrate Al's life, we will truly miss him!!

“ I was so sad to hear that Alan had passed away. We lived across the street from each other in the 1960s. I can remember many cold days playing in the snow and when it warmed up our sport activities turned into great competitions. I have been praying for Alan since I first heard he had cancer. My prayers are now centered on his family for comfort and peace.
