“ Since we were little me and Anthony were buddies. From playing sports together and just growing up together, with all the awesome memories that came along with those days. Life is so short.. but we will see him again someday up in the clouds. R.I.P Beamer.

“ I have so many memories of Anthony and my son Anthony together, from headstart until we moved in 2006. So sorry that he had to leave so soon. Hoping to see him in heaven when I get there.

“ I have so many special memories of Anthony playing baseball and basketball with my son Keith. So many fun times! What I will remember more than anything is his kindness and respect towards myself and other adults. He always had such a nice smile too. We will always remember how special you were and will continue to pray for your family at this sad time.
