“ It'

s hard for me to think of Arvid as being gone from us, he was there at my beginning . With the early passing of our father, Arvid took on many responsibilities at an early age, mentor/protector of us four younger sisters. I was so glad life brought to him his lovely Pat and blest him with a family he deeply loved and lived for. How many time did I hear him lift their names in prayer, and for others.. . Arvid lived a deep Christian faith, he walked the walk, we rest in our trust that he is at last free of pain and is at rest. God bless each one who loved Arvid and bring you comfort. With love, Elsie & Don “ My Uncle Arvid was a wise and kind man. I remember he loved-reading his books ! I remember the times I would go over to visit and he would usually be sitting in his chair reading. He would put his book down and we would visit! I always liked the sound of my uncle Arvid's voice and how eloquent he spoke. He had a soothing affect on one !!! I could always feel the love he had in his heart for me and that he cared about how I was doing. He always asked me!! I'm thankful that Aunt Shirley took me to go visit him a little over a year ago. We had our one last talk and visit. We always connected spiritually and he liked that. I did too. We connected that day also. He said he knew I would understand what he was saying and I did !! It was nice.

I'm feeling sad I am not able to come to the funeral to pay my respects. I believe Uncle Arvid would understand.

Much heartfelt sympathy to you Pat and my cousins : Tom, Tina, Brian, Rick and Julie

Love, Wendy
