“ Barb and Albin (almost everyday) visited my father, who rents the little red house beside their house. Her humor, wit and overall caring about those around her really shined through her life. She will be greatly missed by the community here. Love and prayers to the family, Ken and Lori Miller

“ When we were kids, many Sunday evenings were spent at Barbs home in Leroy to play and watch TV as no one in our area had a TV. Of course, Sharon, Barb, Nancy and I loved playing upstairs while our mom's and dad's visited over coffee and snacks. Uncle Ralph would often play guitar. Those were happy days and sweet memories linger. Love you cousin Barb. 🙏❤️ Elaine Langworthy Zjnger

“ Aunts Barb and Sharon would come to Grand Rapids to visit my mom, then abruptly head to the casino, along with my mom, it would be hours before Aunt Barb would reappear. Their actual visit may have been short but those girls had fun. Rest in Peace, all three of them now. Terri.
