“ Our folks were good friends and I'm glad that I got to see your mom when I was able to get to Cadillac. She used to sit in the "retired cooks pew" at church. It was my privilege to know your mom.

“ My sister Bernadean was very resourceful. When she was 15 years old, our mother died and Bernadean stepped up and took very good care of my sister Hilma and me. As a young mother, she sewed many of her children's clothing, including bathing suits! As our father grew older, she and Ken took very good care of him. I will always appreciate the large family meals that she hosted, some of which were for special birthday celebrations. My thoughts are with you all. Love, Aunt Willa
