

Betty Emogene (Baird) Molitor

March 27, 1928 - February 15, 2012

Betty Emogene (Baird) Molitor of Cadillac went to be with her Lord on February 15, 2012. She was 83.

She was born on March 27, 1928 in Greenville, Michigan to Blaine Chauncy and Alice Ivadell (Shell) Baird.

Betty and Jerry came to Cadillac in 1955 to live and raise their family. Betty loved God, reading the Bible and singing hymns. She loved her family, farming with her husband, raising a garden and canning. Some of her most joyous times were œbottling,œ digging for old bottles with her best friend Bea. Betty always loved animals and in her later years cherished watching the wildlife and birds around her home. She found beauty in nature and all God's creatures.

Betty is survived by her son, Gary (Uschi) Syers of Hesperia; two daughters, Antoinette (Duane) Gallero and Susan Molitor all of Cadillac; six grandchildren; three great grandchildren and one great great grandchild.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 57 years, Jerry James Molitor and two sons, Charles M. Molitor and baby Lamont Molitor.

A graveside service will be held 11:00 a.m. September 8, 2012 at Selma Township Cemetery with Pastor Andrew Dado officiating. Arrangements were made by the Peterson Funeral Home in Cadillac. An online guestbook is available at www.petersonfh.com.

Tribute Wall

“ So sorry to hear of your loss, Sue. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

Jennifer Weirtz - September 06, 2012 at 12:17 AM