“ It was fun knowing Bruce and his family over the years. There were so many fascinating stories of the Bruce and Ron days at CMU and up to this summer during our travels together. I'll never forget our time in Alaska on the "Duck Tour" and visiting Santa at the North Pole in Ketchikan. May you continue the fun, Bruce, and watch over us until we can have more times together. We will continue to watch over Kathleen and Ayden for you!

“ To Bruce's family. While at NBD, Bruce saw the best in people. He went out on a limb for me and (now) my wife to rebuild our credit when no one else would. A kind, caring, people person that changed our lives.

“ I have considered Bruce my best friend for 42 years. During that time, the frequency of our contacts varied substantially, and I'm glad we had reconnected over these past ten years or so. Bruce's passing has already created a huge void in my life. I enjoyed and will miss our weekly phone calls, our occasional get-togethers, and our travels to Alaska, Traverse City, Mackinac Island, Mt. Pleasant, Las Vegas, and Phoenix. Kathleen and Ayden, you were his absolute pride and joy, and I know that, although he is now without pain, he is very upset about having to leave you, the two absolute loves of his life. Not long ago, I told Bruce how honored and blessed I was to have his friendship over the past 42 years. I feel that now more than ever. I already miss you terribly, Bruce. May you rest in peace for all eternity, my dear, dear friend.

“ "Brow" and I attended Muskegon Community College and Central Michigan together. He was a fun loving and somewhat of an opinionated person. We had lost contact with each other for many years. While in Cadillac for a few days last fall I contacted him and we had an enjoyable time recalling the past experiences and people. I was anticipating renewing our visit this spring. Bruce, you will be missed. I offer my most sincere thoughts to his family.

“ Bruce, you will be missed. Thinking of the good time we had with you on our Alaskan Cruise. You talked about your daughter and grandson so much. I feel like I know them. May you rest in peace.
