“ I didn't know you, but I know your niece Krissy. She loves and misses you very much. And I know if you knew things would of turned out liked it did you would of had a will so she could of got something to remember you by. But she has the best gift that none of the family could take away from her and that is the memories she has of you and a beautiful son that she named after you. She loves and misses you very much Uncle Cal.
