“ I always enjoyed hearing family stories about Carl from his baby brother. He was a character and I loved that he had his own way of doing things that made the stories worth hearing! You can't hear his name and not smile because you remember something hilarious that he did. He will be missed.

“ We are so sorry to hear of your loss. Sixty two years old is so young! My mother, Grethel Genzink died at 61. So sad especially for grandchildren that will not have that time with their Grandparent. We pray God will send his Spirit of comfort in this difficult time.

“ So sorry to read of Carl's passing. Truly this is an earthly loss for his family and friends and those yet to meet Carl. So glad that God saw fit that our family would cross paths with Carl and his family in the early 90s. Truly a man who loved God and his friends and family. Keeping the family in prayer as you journey through the next days, weeks, months year. He is without pain and is truly free in the arms of Jesus.
