“ We spent many good visits with Carol and George at Holy Cross in the '70's. Carol the kind, caring person always greeted us by name even recently. God's peace and care to George, Jim and David and family.

“ Carol was the one on our block who helped to raise money for several very important groups who help people such as the March of Dimes, etc. She always had a bright smile and a wave. She will be missed. We send our deepest sympathy to you and pray that Christ's peace will surround you during this time of loss.
