

Clarence Elmer Lowe

May 4, 1922 - February 21, 2019

Clarence Elmer Lowe of Tustin passed away February, 21, 2019 at Reed City Spectrum Health Rehab and Nursing Center. He was 96.

Clarence was born May 4, 1922 in Bedford Township, Monroe County, Michigan to Omer C. and Sarah Elizabeth (Anderson) Lowe and they preceded him in death. Clarence was also preceded in death by his wife, Inez in 1987.

He graduated from Tustin High School and later joined the military. After he was honorably discharged from the Army he worked in road construction until retirement. Clarence was fortunate to have good neighbors who helped look after him through the years.

In high school Clarence became good friends with Bessie (Rees) Rose which also led to friendships with her daughter, Sharon Jones and her family. Over the years Clarence, Bessie and Sharon enjoyed lots of times together. The trio went on numerous rides looking for deer, out to supper and played cards together. Through this connection Sharon's son Bob became like a son to Clarence. Clarence enjoyed many hunting seasons and holidays with the family.
