

Colleen A. Bailey

July 1, 1932 - August 17, 2025

Colleen A. Bailey of Cadillac passed away on Sunday, August 17, 2025, at the age of 93 at Green Acres Assisted Living.

She was born July 1, 1932, in Herrick, Michigan, to James Patrick and Lena Mae (Kidd) McReavy. A graduate of Cadillac High School, Colleen led a full and vibrant life.

She worked at WWTV radio station typing logbooks and spent many years as a secretary at Maryland Casualty Insurance Agency—a job she loved. Colleen's creative flair led her to decorate window displays at JC Penney. While raising her family, she sold Avon, worked various jobs through Manpower, and later cleaned homes for many in the community.

Her passion was ceramics, and she owned her own kiln. She and her husband Ron shared a love of music, especially attending shows in Frankenmuth featuring Elvis impersonators. They enjoyed snowmobiling with friends, spending time with their great neighbors at Wildwood Condos, and Colleen cherished her time with her Red Hat group.

On November 24, 1965, Colleen married Ronald Bailey, who preceded her in death. She is survived by her stepchildren: Debbie Uhelski of Grand Blanc, James Bailey (Rene Steinhauer) of Florida, and Becky (Ken) Stull of Cadillac; siblings: Camille Marquis of Connecticut, Rosemarie (Dr. Irvin Jr.) Potts of Midland, and Patrick (Jackie) McReavy of South Boardman; as well as five grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren.

The Mass of Christian Burial will take place 11:00 AM, Thursday, August 21, 2025 at St. Ann Catholic Church in Cadillac with Fr. Michael Janowski as celebrant. Friends may meet the family one hour prior to the service at church. Burial will take place at Maple Hill Cemetery in Cadillac.

An online guestbook is available at www.petersonfh.com.
