“ Uncle Dane:

You know. My dentist asked me how much I paid to have my teeth all filed down. I said nothing but memories. He asked what do you mean? I said lots of times being baby sat by my uncle Dane He always gave me jolly ranchers. Still my favorite candy till this day.

He always saw treasure in things that most may have overlooked. You know I think he was the one who had it right. Treasure was in the eye of the beholder.

Always a story to tell. Pipe dreams out of this world and he always had such a huge heart.

The wheeler dealer king. Oh my goodness! He just wanted to be like all his siblings. He looked up to everyone of you. His family I know all has made a significant impact on the way he had gone through a life taken to me too quickly. God saw worth in him and called him to his side.

He truly had a raw spirit and I know today he is in Heaven. Happy and still collecting things he found beauty and happiness that no one realized had value.

If I had the chance today I would tell him I absolutely adored him. Loved him and never was there a day where I thought I'd live without him. But that's the thing. He will always be with all of us in spirit and sometimes in memories of the past.

I am jealous as I wished I finally had life right enough to be in heaven just as he is.

We will all miss him in one way or another.
