“ I was saddened this morning when I read of my friend Dave's passing. I had been looking forward to my trip to Michigan this summer. It was to be an opportunity to get together with Dave which will now have to be another time and place. Remembering violin lessons together, many fiddling jamborees and numerous coffee breaks or meals at the Frosty cup. Dave, you were a good friend and will be missed.

“ I remembered when I married his son Dave , Dad had thanked me for marrying Dave and that he thanked God for bringing me into their family. I didn't know how to respond to that, as hard as it is may be for some to believe I am very shy and skeptical when I first meet people, and I really felt comforted by his words. I thank him for Dave and will always keep his words with me and will miss him.
