“ One of the hardest things about getting older is losing the ones we love. My father-in-law was one of the kindest, and most loving people I've ever know. He accepted me and my children as we were his own. One thing I know is he loved me, he loved my girls, and his family. Thank you for the love, the laughs, and the memories. That smile and goofy sense of humor of yours will be missed! As he use to always tell me when we would say goodbye, " I love you just a little bit"

“ In the short amount of time that I got to know you, I enjoyed your company and talking to you. I will be sure to take care of your daughter Amanda and your grand children. Rest easy my friend and fair winds and following seas as you end your watch. We love you as you have loved us all!
