“ Whenever I think of Diane I remember lazy summers spent swimming at the boat dock on lake Cadillac, the roar of jet boats, the smell of barbecues, a wonderful childhood.. and that she was a part of it all.

“ Diane and I were "Glen" pals. Frequently, while shopping, Diane and I would bump carts, turner a corner. We would then share a laugh and a story or two and then be on our way. She was a lady of grace and will be truly missed. My condolences to the family.

“ Diane was a high school classmate of ours. Since moving to California we only saw her at our class reunions. We we did see her it was such a joy to remember the " old days" and to laugh at the many memories. May you find strength and peace in the memories of your mom and in the love of those who surround you
