“ Aunt Mary, I am so sorry to hear the news of Uncle Ed's passing. I love you and Uncle Ed so much and will miss him terribly. My prayers and thoughts are with you, Barb and Eddie during this difficult time. I wish I didn't live so far away so I could be there with you. I will never forget all the summers I came to visit, the camping, the screaming because their were big bugs in the garden when I would help Uncle Ed, running to the top of the hill as soon as I got there to let everyone know I was there, Uncle Ed teaching me how to fish even though I wouldn't touch the fish or the worm and scaring the pants off Uncle Ed the first time I started swimming to the dock in the lake. I love you Aunt Mary and cousins Barb and Eddie. Hugs and Kisses.
