“ Grannie,

Part of you flows through my children and through your daughter. Though you are gone, you live. You will be missed, as well as Carl, for these many years. Rest in peace, because you deserve it.

“ Affectionally known as " The Cookie Lady" by the members of the Wexford County Sheriff's Office, Erma's bright smile and outgoing personality were always a welcomed sight. She and her daughter would cheerfully come and visit the members of the Office, often bringing goodies baked with kindness, but seeing the joy this outing brought to Erma was the greatest gift. She will be missed.
