

Gene B. Fallis

January 26, 1936 - January 2, 2020

Gene B. Fallis of Cadillac passed away January 2, 2020 at Samaritas Senior Living in Cadillac. He was 83.

Gene was born January 26, 1936 in Burton, Michigan to Lester and Dorothy (Brollier) Fallis and they preceded him in death.

He graduated from Bentley High School and later General Motors Institute of Technology. Gene retired from General Motors in the early 1990's and continued to work at smaller shops as a tool and die maker. He was a member of the Loyal Order of the Moose Lodge for 41 years; transferring from Fenton to Cadillac. He enjoyed spending time with friends at the Moose Lodge and served as past pro-term administrator.

Gene enjoyed hunting and fishing and the time his retirement allowed him to spend doing both those things. He liked doing cross word puzzles and cooking. Gene was considered a jack of all trades and had the ability to do anything he set out to accomplish.

On February 14, 1978 he married Linda Dick Lunkas and she survives him along with his sons: Steve (Karen) Fallis, Scott Fallis, Shawn Fallis, Shannon (Tanya) Fallis, Mike (Don) Fallis; step-children: Adam Lunkas (Pat) , Deborah Lunkas- Jackson; several grandchildren and great-grandchildren and a sister, Janice Beck of Grand Blanc.

A celebration of life will be held 12:30 PM, Saturday, January 4, 2020 at the Moose Lodge of Cadillac.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to the Cadillac Moose Lodge #531. An online guestbook is available at www.petersonfh.com.

“ So sorry for your loss.how many times I have argue Ed with him and tell him I would beat him and rub his neck and shouldrs and find his sore spot then tell him I beat him lol
No more sharing pitchers of beer between the husband' s.i think Gene paid for more of them.
God' s blessings always for you and your family.
