“ I just found out yesterday...April 18th... such a loss indeed! I will miss Glen, so much I remember from him. One of his favorite cliché's "Oh for crying out loud..." Among other things, just a great friend and business partner to me. I gained a lot of direction/advice from Glen, bottle digging, mechanics, and cutting wood together. I sincerely regret that I could not have been a better friend... One day, all I can hope, is we will meet again. A shining example of what it is to be a friend and a father...

“ I have fond memories of Glen playing music with his talented family and fun conversations around the house. No doubt there was a lot of respect for Papa Nolf. Sending love and prayers for all of the Nolf Family. May fond memories and the knowledge that he is with Jesus now bring your comfort.

On occasions like this, words may seem to fail in taking away the pain, or help celebrate where he has gone. So we hurt, we smile and then cry, and still feel that something is incomplete. We rest, some, in the knowledge that we will understand this all better, by and by. So my prayer is for peace and God's blessings on my friends, and all the family of, as I respectfully called him, Mr. Nolf.

“ Glen was my neighbor here in Cadillac for a short time, but I grew fond of his humor and stories. He was always outside with Riley his dog. He grew fond of my puppy Poo and would always say hi to both of us when we were on our daily walks. I will miss our daily talks and his pleasant words. I am sure he is in heaven telling everyone his stories. RIP friend.
