

Gloria Labadie

February 18, 1949 - December 9, 2025

Gloria Labadie of Harrison passed away Tuesday, December 9, 2025 at MyMichigan Clare Hospital. She was 76. Gloria was born February 18, 1949 in Detroit, Michigan to Allison Edwards and Vera Jean (Cochran) Heywood, Jr. and they preceded her in death.

She married Robert E. Labadie, the love of her life, and he preceded her in death on June 9, 2016.

Gloria graduated from Kimball Highschool and went on to attend St. Clair Community College. She worked in healthcare as a nurse's aid for several years. Gloria had a special place in her heart for the elderly, special needs and animals.

She was artistic, working on stained glass and working with local art vendors to sell her work as well as gifting it to family and friends. She had her husband Robert had been members of Mid Michigan Model A Club, Capitol City Old Car Club and the Lansing Flying Aces.

She is survived by her daughter, Monique (Brad) Drury; grandchildren: Alex Drury, Brendan Drury, Gabby Drury all of Grawn ; siblings: Douglas Heywood of Cadillac and Laura Burke of LeRoy.

Burial will take place at Fort Custer National Cemetery with her husband. An online guestbook is available at www.petersonfh.com.

Tribute Wall

CN

“ I just found out about Gloria's passing !
I am stunned, sad, shocked! Gloria's has been my friend since I was 7 yrs. old ! She was in my wedding ! I am just without words ! I will miss her totallyRIP my BFFI will never forget all our fun times! 💔💔💔💔💔

Cheryl Niemi - January 15 at 06:17 PM

JP

“ Gloria was a special addition to our Bluegill Lake neighborhood. I am lucky to have called her friend. She adored her daughter Monique and the grandkids. She spoke of you all w such love and pride. Take good care of each other.

Jennie p - December 20, 2025 at 10:55 AM