“ Wonderful neighbor! I' Il never forget the days Prince and Gordy logged off firewood on the Boon Road. Good ole Prince had a 5 o' clock deadline, and if we weren' t watching Prince would run that tree all the way to the barn. I also enjoyed boxing with Gordy, but I didn' t like his long arms! Rest In Peace, Gordy! You will be dearly missed.

“ Uncle Gordy has always been a kind man. He was like a father to all of us. I still remember helping him drive the cows to the 40, teaching us how to shoot a gun, going fishing, and yelling at both Nick and I for riding one of the cows in the barn. So many fond memories of being on the farm. We will miss you Uncle Gordy. Until we meet again may God keep you in his loving embrace.
