

Gregory Brian Clark

November 21, 1958 - August 6, 2017

Gregory Brian Clark of Cadillac passed away Sunday, August 6, 2017 at Munson Medical Center in Traverse City, Michigan. He was 58.

Greg was born November 21, 1958 in Flint, Michigan to Fredrick G. and Thelma J. (Church) Clark. He graduated from Bentley High School and later earned his Bachelor's Degree from Baker College in Flint. Greg worked as an accountant for many years. Greg grew up in Flint, Michigan and moved to Kingsley to raise his children, recently moving to Cadillac.

He was an outstanding husband and father. Becoming a grandpa was the greatest joy of his life. Greg enjoyed fishing with his grandson, Matthew and shared a love of reading with his granddaughter, Lily. Along with fishing he was an outstanding racquetball player and avid reader.

On June 23, 1979 at Blessed Sacrament in Burton, Michigan he married the former Ellen Ann Jacobs and she survives him along with their children: Christopher (Malina) Clark of Cadillac and Andrea (Michael) Stagg of Mesick; grandson, Matthew Clark; granddaughter, Lily Stagg; mother, Thelma Clark of Cadillac; brother, Michael (Deborah) Clark of Wayland; best friend of 54 years, Mark (Dani) Eller of Flint; in-laws: Russell (Laurette) Jacobs of West Amherst, New York, Roger (Debbie) Jacobs of Alma, Michigan, Mary Luttermoser, Goetzville, Michigan, Jeanne (Steve) Dobie of Sequim, Washington, Jill (Phil)

Fielder of Clio, Michigan and Gloria (Bill) Lewis of Cheshire, Massachusetts.

He was preceded in death by his father, Fredrick Clark in 2013; a brother-in-law, Larry Luttermoser and in-laws, Edwin and Dorothy Jacobs.

Cremation has taken place and a private service will be held at a later date. An online guestbook is available at www.petersonfh.com.
