“ I wish I'd found this earlier... I knew Greg as Kuchini as many of us did. He was a sweet, generous person who always made me smile when he popped up in Guild. It's amazing how we touch each other's lives, in some small way. I know you'll be taken care of, wherever your soul lands!

“ Greg (forever known as “K” to me), was one of the kindest and funniest guild mates. FREE is going to be so quiet without you. Rest easy Kuchini, you'll be missed. You called me J and your friend.
