“ My thoughts and prayers are with you, your family and friends for strength and guidance at this time of sadness. May God's arms be felt around all of you at this difficult time.

Isaiah 33:2

O LORD, be gracious to us; we long for you. Be our strength every morning, our salvation in time of distress.

Isaiah 40:29-31

He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.

May God heal you and strengthen you today and always. Blessings!

“ Jim, you will be missed friend.

For your dry sense of humor, your insightful way of thinking, and for your laugh (I still remember your laugh from school days). Most of all, for your genuine love for your kids and Sara. I was blessed to have spent some short time with you and Sara before you married, and couldn't help but notice the sparkle in your eyes when you looked at her. I am so very sorry that depression took you with it's evil clutch, I pray that you are finally released of the torture that it forced on you.

You will be missed, friend.
