“ When I was younger, my Dad and I had our tough times. However, when I asked his forgiveness he said to me " there is nothing to forgive Kim, you are my little girl." This reminded me so much of the way Jesus forgives us, when he wipes the slate clean and says What Sin? I love you Dad, I pray you have peace in eternity for I know Jesus prepared you a wonderful place in Heaven. Your oldest but little girl forever, Kim Robinson
