

Jenny McLeod Schunk

September 4, 1923 - June 4, 2024

Jenny McLeod Schunk of Cadillac passed away Tuesday, June 4, 2024. She was 100. Jenny was born September 4, 1923 in Glasgow, Scotland to Andrew Haxton and Grace Robb (Sterling) McLeod. At seven years old Jenny immigrated to America with her family.

Jenny was a long time member of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Long Lake, Illinois. She was an avid reader, reading several novels a week at 100 years old. Jenny was also a talented seamstress; sewing clothes for her daughters and their dolls when they were young. She was very intelligent, a wonderful sense of humor and was the perfect combination of sassy and genuine kindness.

She is survived by her daughters, Jenny (Blair) Morcom of Cadillac, Michigan and Carol (Eddie) Mampe of Grayslake, Illinois; grandchildren: Brian Pratt (April Lawless), Betsy (Karl) Davis, Amy (Kevin) Brown, Beth Ann (Dean) Miller, E.J. (Bella) Mampe; 16 great grandchildren; seven great-great grandchildren and a sister, Grace Bohan.

Jenny was preceded in death by her husband, James H. Schunk on June 13, 1975 and a sister, Margaret Mitchell.

Cremation has taken place and her final resting place will be Arlington

Cemetery in Elmhurst, Illinois.

An online guestbook is available at www.petersonfh.com.

“ It was God's plan for Jerry and I to come to know this beautiful lady through her daughter Jenny. Having lived only a few miles from her in Illinois but not meeting her until we were both in Michigan we became quick friends and had many of the same friends back in Ill. She was the brightest star, loved her crafts with Jenny and grandkids, loved to just sit and chat or read a book. She always loved the adventures Blair and Jenny took her on and talked about them often. I am so glad that God had a plan and we were part of it. Rest in peace on this trip sweet friend. My heart is full. Love you, Jerry and Brenda Gartzke
