

Jon R. Boersma

May 1, 1942 - February 6, 2025

Jon R. Boersma of Cadillac passed away, Thursday, February 6, 2025 at home surrounded by his family. He was 82. Mr. Boersma was born May 1, 1942 in Cadillac to Mel and Maude (Whittet) Boersma.

He attended Cadillac High School where he met the love of his life, Donna, at age 16. Mr. Boersma graduated from Cadillac High School in 1960 and attended Ferris State College. He worked at Cadillac Malleable Iron for over 20 years before owning and operating D & J Produce Market in Ewart for over 20 years before retiring.

Mr. Boersma was an avid hockey fan; watching the Red Wings and playing at the ice rink by Diggins Hill as a child and later well into his adulthood. He loved spending time outside, in the woods hunting or in their yard. Mr. Boersma looked forward to his cousin Greg's visits and their breakfasts out together. Above all else, Mr. Boersma loved his family; especially his grandchildren. They never missed an opportunity to support their grandchildren, even if it meant early morning road trips to do so.

On June 30, 1962 at First Baptist Church in Cadillac he married his high school sweetheart, Donna Richardson and she survives him along with their daughters, Joy Boersma and Kim Hearth both of Cadillac; grandchildren: Grace (Job) Self, Jon Hearth (Andi); brother, Tom (Vickie) Boersma of Cadillac and many cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

In addition to his parents Mr. Boersma was preceded in death by his siblings: Joanne Hendricks, Marvin and Don Boersma and in-laws, Don and Irene Richardson.

Per his wishes cremation has taken place and a celebration of life will be held at a later date. An online guestbook is available at www.petersonfh.com
