“ *I was stunned at the news and struggled with words to put here. I found out at your service that it was your direction not to disturb me as I sat with my sister from hospital to HOSPICE to her final heavenly embrace. But that's just the friend that you were. Selfless and compassionate. Thank you for all our memories. I am blessed to have known and loved you. I know you are at peace. I will take comfort in that as I grieve. I miss you.
To Joyce's family, thank you for sharing her with me. May God's grace and peace bless and keep you through this tough time.*

“Joyce- You were always such a concerned friend and your caringness was always appreciated. Whether it was keeping an eye on my mom, going to dinner, shopping, baking stuff for Marv or just plain being there for others, you had the biggest heart and we will always remember you and keep a special place for you in our hearts.

“My condolences to the family, the bible describes a God of comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial with the comfort that we receive from God.”
(2 Corinthians 1:3,4) May God comfort you during this difficult time and may you find comfort in his promise of a resurrection.
