“ Grandpa... Where should I start? Where shall I end? I'm sorry you're gone thank you for all you've given me growing up in through my life. Thank you for all the fond memories and for letting me live with you as a child I always felt loved by you and I always learned that I could be a good man. Thank you for all you've done you're with Grandma now and your journey has just begun. The time here on Earth is a short time but you have an eternity with the Lord now and all of your loved ones that went before you. Rip Grandpa you'll be missed more than anyone will ever know. I love you... Give grandma a hug...

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I will remember Lloyd and Virginia. Wonderful people/family. I recall they were good friends of my parents. I recall your Dad showing up in Wellston where my Dad was working on a roof. With my Dad's right hand and your Dad's left hand, they completed that roofing job in no time. Peace.

“ I remember Uncle Lloyd and Aunt Virginia dropping in for a Saturday visit when I was growing up. They were so nice. For my high school graduation they gave me twelve $1 bills with serial numbers ending in 1-12. I still have those bills as a keepsake.
