“ Grandma Maddie, I am so happy that you are secure in the arms of Jesus. Please ask Him to look after us here. We will miss you terribly. Know that your legacy will live forever in your beautiful children and grandchildren. I see that legacy in Mammy's smile and Kyle's tender heart, I can see it in Mikey's compassion for the people and anyone who knew you will carry on your legacy because you shine a light so bright, there is no way to walk away the same. I love you and am so blessed to have known you. Thank you for loving my family before you knew us and accepting us immediately as one of your own. See you later and give Jesus knuckles for me!

“ Aunt Madelyn would play cards for hours with my parents. She always loved my Dad, Thomas, and never said a bad word about him - though we tried to get some of those stories from her. She always had a smile for me and she will be greatly missed.
