“ Mary Ann and I were classmates at McKinley School as well as all the way through Cadillac High School. She was a very kind, genuine parson. She and I lived in the same neighborhood and always greeted each other as old acquaintances. My condolences to family.

“ So very sorry to hear about MaryAnn's passing. When she stopped bowling it was a loss to our association, but God had other plans for her. Now she is at peace. She will be missed.

“ I worked with Mary Ann at Mercy Hospital and quickly became a huge fan of hers. She said what she needed to say, and goodness, there were a lot of laughs. I still have the key chain she gave me years ago. Keep the angels laughing sweet Mary Ann.
