

Matt "Woody" Wood

July 3, 1958 - September 23, 2025

Matt "Woody" Wood of Cadillac passed away peacefully Tuesday, September 23, 2025 at home surrounded by family. He was 67.

Matt was born July 3, 1958 in Ogden, Utah and lived all his life in Cadillac. He graduated from Cadillac High School in 1976 and was quite an athlete in his younger years. He enjoyed fast pitch softball and bowling especially. Matt was the happiest outdoors; whether it was hunting, fishing or working in his yard. He was also an avid sports fan; cheering for the Red Wings, Wolverines and the Lions. Matt had worked at various manufacturing jobs in the area before retiring.

He is survived by his loving wife, Kelly; children, Ryan Wood and Kyle Lockhart both of Cadillac; siblings: Cheryl Rowe of Las Vegas, Michael Blackmer and Steve (Joanne) Blackmer all of Cadillac; sister-in-law, Nancy Wood of Manton; several nieces and nephews and many great-nieces, nephews and cousins and his dog, Sammie that he loved very much.

Matt was preceded in death by his parents, Donna and Kenneth "Mike" Blackmer; brother, Joe Wood and brother-in-law, Kerry Rowe.

Graveside services for all who knew Matt will be held 11:00 AM, Friday, October 3, 2025 at Maple Hill Cemetery in Cadillac. The invitation will extend to a luncheon at the Pines at 12:00 noon.

An online guestbook is available at www.petersonfh.com.
