“ I am Nancy's cousin Roger A. Hofstra. I was born on August `16th, 1948, exactly five years after Nancy's brother Ron was born. Her parents, Helen and Ray Hofstra were our closest relatives. My parents are Uncle Ray's brother Merton and wife Kathleen. Nancy and I spent many nice afternoons listening to records, and playing the piano. Her dog's name was Perp. In 1958, my brother Tom and I stayed with Ray and Helen for a few days. Nancy took us to her classes at Cooley School, on Sunnyside Drive. Nancy was especially close to her father, Ray. They were expert fishermen, and probably caught tons of Perch and Sun fish in Lake Cadillac. Nancy was a gentle, hard working soul. Probably my favorite cousin, since we were close in age. Go with God, dear Nancy. The story and our friendship is not over.
