“ Hey My beautiful angel Mommy, well today is Thanksgiving and I really miss you. This is the 9th thanksgiving without you. I wish you were here but I know that you are in a better place. Daddy isn't doing much today. He lost a big doe on opening day of hunting season. We laugh about the time that Daddy took you hunting with him and you yelled at the deer and it ran away. I'm spending the day with my adopted sister Mary and her family. You would really love them. They are amazing people. I'm going to end this letter. I Love and Miss you. I'll write more later

“ Hey Mommy. It's your little girl. Well I guess I'm not such a little girl anymore I'm all grown up. Today was really rough because it is the anniversary of you being gone. I Love and Miss you so much. I know you're in a better place and you're no longer in pain or sick. I know that you're watching over me and you always will. You know Danny passed away. I really miss him too. Mommy you would be so proud of me. I moved from Grand Rapids Michigan down here to Sturgis Michigan and things have been going good. I want to try to get my GED and make you proud of me. Daddy is doing okay. He has his good days and he has his bad days. I know he misses you. We talk about you all the time. Especially the time the daddy took you hunting with him and the deer came out and you started clapping your hands and yelled and told the deer run deer run don't come out here. Daddy took it home and told you that you were never going to hunt with him again. Well I think I'm going to lay down and watch some TV with summer Rayne. Please give Edwin and Mama Cindy a hug for me and tell them that I love and miss them both very much also. All right Mama until next time. Love you and I'll talk to you later

“ Hi Mommy. It's me Michelle. Well coming up on your number eight that you've been gone. Quite often I find myself wanting to call you. I know it's silly but when I watch certain shows or hear certain songs I think of You. It makes me sad knowing that you're not here anymore. Their times I've gotten exciting news or happy news and I wanted to share it with you but I know I can't because you're not here. And I say here and tell you this I cry. Sasha is doing wonderful. She has five babies and one on the way. Shantel on the other hand. She isn't doing too well. But all I can do is help and pray that she fine her way to positive direction. I've been in my new apartment in Sturgis Michigan for almost a year now mama. I miss you so much. I know that you're watching over me and that you always protect me. Daddy is doing okay. He had good days and bad days. I know that he misses you each and every day. I sometimes by myself looking out my balcony door and thinking to myself how wonderful it would be to have my mommy just walk up and hug me. I know that you are watching over me. I'm going to let you go for now mama. I will post more on your 8-year anniversary of you being gone. Good night Mommy I love you
