“ From age 8 to 18 I spent countless morning coffee sessions with Aunt Priscilla and my dad. We lived just a mile away so she was always stopping by! Whenever we stopped by her place, she would whip up a quick lunch for us and she always finished with some Schwann's ice cream. Great memories with a great lady!

“ Our deepest sympathies to all, I will always have fond memories of summer time at Aunt Priscilla's farm, times we would go to church together and how much Aunt Priscilla Loved singing hymns, and I remember her collection of those pretty tea cups and saucers she had. I will really miss her smile and laughter, she was a really loving Aunt. Love, Comfort and Peace to all, from family here in Idaho.
