

Robert Joseph "Bob" Woodworth

August 5, 1964 - April 20, 2019

Robert Joseph "Bob" Woodworth of Cadillac went on his journey Saturday, April 20, 2019 at Spectrum Health Fred and Lena Meijer Heart Center after a short illness. He was 54.

Bob was born August 5, 1964 in Pontiac, Michigan, to Donna Woodworth and John Hayek and they preceded him in passing.

He graduated from Cadillac High School from 1983. Bob was currently employed at Rexair in Cadillac.

Bob was a family man. His family was his world. He loved his music, going to concerts, getting tattoos, riding his motorcycle and watching Red Wings games. He loved being with his friends and family. He was a stand-up guy that everyone loved.

On July 6, 1996 in Yuma, Michigan, he married the former Sandra Mongar and she survives him along with their children: Christine (Ethan) Hunt, Jeremiah Hunt, Seth Woodworth, Alysia Woodworth, Saige Mason and Brooklyn Mason; grandchildren: Marshall and Arianna Hunt, Theodore Woodworth; brothers, Walter Buchanan, Brian Woodworth; sisters, Sharolyn Whitaker, Felicia (John) Irwin; and many nieces and nephews.

Cremation has taken place and a celebration of life will be announced at a later time.

An online guestbook is available at www.petersonfh.com.

“ I would like to offer my condolences. Some experts consider accepting support from family and friends to be the most important factor in getting through grief. Yet, at times, you may want to be alone. This is normal. So according to your needs, find a balance between time other people and time alone. May God's rich blessings remain with you.
