“ God Bless Sally. I am happy that she is finally with the Lord and at peace. Sally married my Dad, Gene Cox, when I was a teenager in high school. It was wonderful to be accepted by Sally and our relationship grew from there. Since we lost Dad in 2001, Sally and I have kept in touch, providing comfort to each other in our grief. It was special to share photos and stories of my sons, and then their precious daughters as well. I wanted Sally to meet our beautiful granddaughters in person, but that was not to be. It was an honor to spend time with Sally, especially as her health deteriorated. The closeness and understanding we shared, will always hold a place in my heart. With love, Cathy and family

“ Sally was always a great fun friend. We use to enjoy the Cherry County Playhouse every summer. we saw Phyllis Diller, Rue McCalahan, Pat Paulson, Bea Arthur, Vicki Lawrence and Hugh Orien. We laughed so hard with Miss Diller that our abdomens hurt for a week. Then there was the dog boots that was such a great companion. Want to give wishes to all the family that know us. God Bless all of you, Love Ron and Amy
