

Scott A. Altman

December 17, 1960 - December 4, 2025

Scott A. Altman of Cadillac passed away December 4, 2025 at home. He was 64. Scott was born Dec. 17, 1960 in Cadillac to Max L. and Joan C. (Miller) Altman.

Scott graduated from Cadillac High School and worked at Eberherd's Grocery Store after school. He then worked at St. John's Furniture Company, Rexair, Railroad and later retired from CCI after 30 years.

In his younger years Scott enjoyed skiing and was a daredevil. He still loved adventure and didn't find the need for a map on an impromptu road trip. Scott enjoyed hunting, fishing and being in the woods. He was an antique entrepreneur; he loved spending time looking for treasures and was always happy to tell the story about his latest find.

Scott is survived by his mother, Joan Johnson of Cadillac; siblings: Jackie (Jose) Arevalo of Virginia, Marty (Shannon) Altman of Cadillac and Beth (Kevin) Dore of Presque Isle, Rick Johnson of Boon, Carrie Johnson of Florida and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father, Max Altman and step-father, Steve Johnson.

Cremation has taken place. An online guestbook is available at www.peterson

“ This is so crazy. I sent him a message yesterday on his birthday. He was someone very special to me. We took road trips, walks, watched TV and so many other memories. I forget how but he was somehow related to my cousin., he could tell you. I will miss seeing him in his red truck on the road and our random messages to each other 😞
