

Sharon Patricia Ayers-Ives

October 30, 1954 - December 24, 2023

Sharon Patricia Ayers-Ives of Ashton passed away, Sunday, December 24, 2023 at home surrounded by the people who cared about her. She was 69.

Sharon was born October 30, 1954 in Grand Rapids, Michigan to Kenneth and Evelyn V. (Vaughan) Stratton. She graduated from Thornapple Kellogg in Middleville, Michigan in 1972. She raised five children alone and took joy in watching them grow into adults. She attended college and earned her master's degree in English and worked as a short hand court reporter. She enjoyed reading, painting, drawing, classic cars and Christmas light gazing. Sharon loved cooking, baking and finding new recipes. She loved spending time with her family, who will miss her dearly. She also loved music in particular the Oldies and Country Music.

She is survived by her children: Rachel B. Ayers, Nathan P. (Lisa) Ayers, Lorry J. (Dave) Graybeal, Larry J. Hess, Tony D. (Jennifer) Hess, eight grandchildren; her mother, Evelyn V. Vaughan; siblings: Rebecca (Sam) Whitney, Lisa Perkins, Kathy Grunderman- Marquez; many nieces and nephews.

Sharon was preceded in death by her father.

Cremation has taken place and no services will be held at this time. An online guestbook is available at www.petersonfh.com.

“ I was sorry to hear of Sharon Pat’s passing but I know I will see her in Heaven. She was my 1st foster child and that put a bond between her family and mine. May God give peace to her family at this time. Praying for the family.
