“ I would just like to take this opportunity one last time to thank you for being one of the kindest, gentlest, and most beautiful persons I have ever had not just the honor but the priveledge to know as well. You have forever changed my life for the better, and I will never be able to thank you or dad for taking me into your house and hearts. I love you, and I miss you, I can't wait to sit and have another cup of coffee. The world is a darker place without your bright smile in it.
