“ Tabby, You were Our favorite person. Always full of Laughter and Smiles. We couldn't wait to see you whenever we got the chance. We loved getting text messages from you just asking How Our day was or to tell us about what was going on in your life. We looked forward to them. We miss you so very much. We know God has you up there with him free from all your chains. We love you always. Until we meet again.

“ If you knew Tabitha, you would know that aside from her friends and family, there were two things that she loved more than anything else. Those were Pok |â┐mon, and Disney. If you mentioned something about Pok |â┐mon, be ready to learn everything there is to know about them from her. She was a Pok |â┐mon expert unlike anyone else I've ever met, and that just shows how passionate she was about the things she cared about. She grew up dreaming of being a Disney Princess, so it's comforting that when she closed her eyes for the last time she was in her favorite place in the world and God gave her the chance to become a Princess and live out her dreams. It's still hard for me to accept that you're gone, but I know you'll always watch over me, love you Tabbs!

“ Sweet Tabitha, I will miss you. I will miss your smile. I will miss your quiet laugh and it didn't take much to make you laugh. You would always laugh at my jokes no matter how corny they were. You were such a strong person heart & soul and never complained. Rest now and sing with the angels. You will be forever in my heart.

“ Growing up, Tabitha was in and out of the hospital constantly and dealt with more challenges as a kid than most of us will experience in a lifetime. Looking back, there were a lot of times when she must have been struggling immensely, and I can't recall her complaining even once. In spite of the challenging hand she was dealt, Tabitha remained the most optimistic and kind person I've ever known, and I learned a lot from her. My cousin Tabitha was probably the toughest person I've ever met, and it's difficult to accept that she's passed. As hard as it is to say goodbye, it's comforting to know that she's in a place where she doesn't need to be so strong anymore.

“ My oldest Granddaughter Tabitha a true fighter since the day she was born. Every obstacle that was put in her way, she met the challenges head on with the spirit that nothing will stop her from achieving her goals. Tabitha, Grandma Lila tells me that you two are dancing above the stars, that you are now with her, and that both of you are free of any pain.
