“ Condolences to Toms family. He was such a character. Just about every morning he would be standing outside welcoming us to the Forge.- His humor was so contagious. He often talked about his wife Deb. Most of the time it was about some joke he tried to pull on her. The sparkle in his eyes said he did it with love. RIP Tom.

“ My condolences to Toms Family and friends. Haven't seen or spoken to Tom - or any of the Discher boys - since high school, but the memories of the fun we all had is still fresh in my mind. I remember him as a very nice and thoughtful person, full of life and mischievousness. I am sure he will be sorely missed by all who knew him.
