“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Tom. I knew and served him for over 20 years. He was always a kind and understanding person with me. I can't count the number of times Tom and I talked on the phone, as well as meeting him in person several times. I will always remember the stories he would tell, especially about fishing the river near Tippy Dam. I always respect a fellow veteran. Our sincere condolences to Mike and the rest of his family with your loss.

“ Our love and sympathy to all the family. It was such a joy when my brother, Don, married Tom's mother, Millie, and we got to inherit seven step nieces and nephews.
Many loving memories in family gatherings..
