“ My heart pours out love and prayers to Arden and the whole entire family of hers and Thom's. I first met Thom at the ELdorado when he and his sister Jeannette and her husband along with the kiddos would very frequently go to have a beautiful family dinner. Always a fun time with them. He will be so missed. But we will see him again!! Bless you all in prayers! 💜

“ My family first met Thom several years ago when he installed a new door at my parents home so that my dad had access to his wheel chair ramp. My dad enjoyed his visits while Thom worked. Some time later Thom started playing in the same band as my former husband and they became good friends. When my dad passed away I asked my former husband if one of his friends would help with music at my dad's memorial service. Thom was that friend. I am sure that my dad was very happy to have Thom there that day. I appreciated Thom's kindness and gentle heart and manor. I hope knowing what a good guy Thom was helps bring a smile to his family's faces and joy to your hearts. Rest is peace Thom and I wish peace and comfort for Thom's entire family.

“ We loved Thom's keen intelligence, sense of humor, devotion to his family, amazing carpentry abilities and musical talent. Such an overall good guy! Thom will be sorely missed by all who were blessed to know him. To Thom's family, keep your chins up so God can see your faces and smile gently down upon you. Love, Bill and Lori Lizenby
