

Timothy Manley Cotter

April 14, 1971 - October 23, 2024

Timothy Manley Cotter died Wednesday, October 23, 2024 at home. He was 53.

Tim was born April 14, 1971 to Dale and Betty (Gilde) Cotter. He graduated from Cadillac High School and Western Michigan University with a Bachelor's Degree in Aeronautical Engineering.

Tim touched many lives during his 53 years. He owned and operated Cotter's Gardens and later Bob's Pole Buildings. His most recent employment was farming with Joe Kulhawick his longtime trusted friend. Tim was intelligent, compassionate, hardworking, resourceful, kind and his ready smile lit up any room.

Tim is survived by his children Ezra R. (Megan) Cotter, Kayda Marie (Josh) Hart, and Brekken J. Cotter, and by Rebecca Oeverman, the mother of his children. He is also survived by his loving parents, Dale & Betty Cotter, his sister Darcy (Greg) Bast, and their children, Mara and Gavin and his brother Dustin Cotter and his children Breslin, Piper and Kaiden.

Private family funeral services will be held. An online guestbook is available at www.petersonfh.com

Beth and I and the Oudman family share our condolences and pray that God will comfort you during this time of suffering. We have known him for a long time. He was a good man and we miss him.

God is faithful to those who love him and Tim loved the Lord and his family and his community and served them well throughout his life.
