

Todd Alan Bowman

January 14, 1972 - February 1, 2023

Todd Alan Bowman passed away Wednesday, February 1, 2023. He was 51.

Todd was born January 14, 1972 in Cadillac to Larry and Delores (Low) Bowman.

He was employed at Sysco for 28 years. Todd enjoyed golf and watching football. He was an avid University of Michigan and New England Patriots fan.

He survived by his daughters, Alexis Bowman and Brittany Bowman both of Kingsley; his mother, Delores Bowman of Sebring, Florida; brothers, Tim (Debbie) Bowman of Lakeland, Florida, Jim (Tracy) Bowman of Norton, Massachusetts and nieces: Brielle, Shaylee, Kambrynn.

Todd was preceded in death by his father, Larry.

Cremation has taken place. An online guestbook is available at www.petersonfh.com.

Tribute Wall

JB

“ Jennifer Baughan-Fuzi lit a candle in memory of Todd Alan Bowman

Jennifer Baughan-Fuzi - April 27, 2023 at 03:02 PM

LB

“ This breaks my heart. Todd was my Sysco delivery guy. He always went above and beyond. He was always happy and stood and chatted for a bit. I looked forward to seeing him. When he failed to deliver my order 2 weeks in a row I got angry with the replacement and demanded to know where he was. I'm devastated. I send this family my most heart felt sympathies. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

Lana Bearup - February 16, 2023 at 10:20 AM

PH

Britany and Alexis we lived as neighbors by your dad. He was sweet a nice, kind person..I'm so sorry for the circumstances you are going through! Stay strong our prayers are with you.

pam haley - February 21, 2023 at 09:04 PM