“ Todd and I spent many hours fishing various lakes in northern Michigan. He was a loyal friend and a wonderful companion during our ventures together and I will miss him dearly. My wife Carol and I offer our deepest sympathy to Todd's family, particularly his daughter Page, and his co-workers. May he forever rest in peace.

“ Todd, we have a ton of memories to share. You were a big part of my family and you are so loved by us. We will truly miss you. You truly have broken a piece of our hearts. My kids, my husband(your best friend) and I will forever cherish every moment, every til tok, every laugh and heartaches for the rest of our lives. You may be gone, but I guarantee you, you will never be forgotten.
