“ I am so sad for the Valko family to lose their son/father/grandfather/brother/uncle/cousin. As his cousin, 10 years his junior, I wasn't as close to Willy as some, but he and I still had a family bond. I wrote Willy letters when he was in the navy and I was just a kid. Willy came to our resort in Houghton lake when I was a teenager and he came to our cottage in Prudenville when I was an adult. My last time with Willy he was downstate visiting and ended up staying overnight at our house, he and I played cards and drank beer and laughed until time to go to bed. I will always cherish that time with my cousin Willy. I love you cuz and hope you have eternal peace ❤️
